

E- Books available for free – Keep Reading!

A lot of books are available for free online. There is a list of links below for you to explore. Remember it is important to keep reading

1. Your local library allows you to access e books online for free. Just go to your local library website and you can access the catalogue.

2. Freechildrenstories.com

3. Oxford Owl

<https://www.oxfordowl.co.uk/for-home/find-a-book/library-page/>

4. Book trust - free audio books: www.Booktrust.org.uk

5. Amazon Audible is available for free for 30 days - you can download as many titles as you want in this time, just remember to cancel your subscription at the end of the month.

6. There are a range of audio books available through HWB. Just search audio books in the search engine to find the titles.

There is also a summer reading challenge available via HWB. In resources search 'reading' and it is one of the first resources to pop up.

