

My 'rainy day' reading

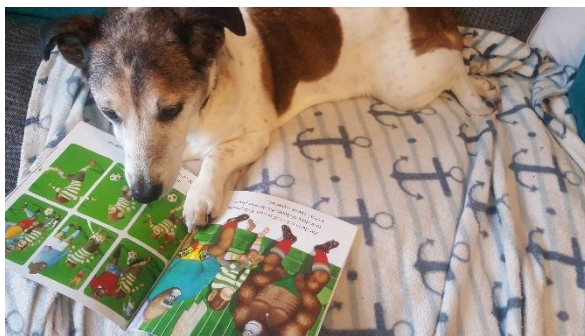

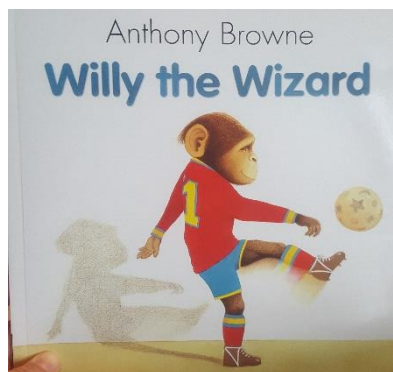

Thank you for your book review - I thought I'd read it today as the weather is so terrible!

My favourite part was the same as yours! This was my favourite page - I like the suspense.

This story is super - with a great moral: give everything a go and try your best!

Oscar tried to read it too - think he just liked the footballs!

This is a lovely story - even though its about football! This has taught me I need to try reading more sports books.
